Golf Illustrated is the No. 1 golf instruction magazine. We have invested the same time, resources and talent to make the No. 1 golf instruction website. www.GolfIllustrated.com is packed with raw, hard-core instruction from the best PGA teaching professionals from across the country. Our content is organized in a clear, concise and user-friendly format so that when our readers are surfing, they can find the information that they seek quickly and completely. From the most innovative and comprehensive equipment and technology reviews to downloadable podcast instruction, www.GolfIllustrated.com truly is the one-stop shop for our avid golf readership.

GOLF ILLUSTRATED UNIVERSITY www.gogiu.com

The magazine with Ivy League caliber instruction and equipment reviews has founded the first online golf instruction university worthy of our reputation, Golf Illustrated University. With enrollment, students will have access to a myriad of courses, from Golf Fundamentals to Equipment Technology and many more from our top PGA teaching professors. Students also have access to an incredible golf learning tool, GameTracker-powered by Golfbuzz. This software is the perfect complement to assist students as they go through our curriculum and strive to improve their game. They can also post to messageboards, upload and share photos, write blogs and much more!
